

EWS-KT PROJECTS IN NIGERIA
Project duration	Project name	Funding partners	Strategic and implementing partners	Description	Total number trained (or to be trained)	Location
2025-2026 CURRENT PROJECT	Training in Horticulture, Resilience, and Income for Vegetable Entrepreneurship and Sustainability (THRIVE)	This project is co-funded by a private Dutch foundation.	Wageningen University & Research; Ahmadu Bello University; Ministry of Agriculture in Kaduna, Kano, and Sokoto States	Increase farmers' income and resilience through a multipronged approach that includes agronomic and business training, training of trainers and agro-input dealers, development of extension materials in local languages, and access to finance.	30,000 farmers	Kaduna, Kano, and Sokoto states
2024-2027 CURRENT PROJECT	DELIVER Nigeria (DEcent Livelihoods for small-scale producers delivered through Economic & Resilient food systems in Nigeria)	Accelerating Resilient Food Systems in Africa (ARFSA), a program of the Netherlands Enterprise Agency (RVO)	Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN) (lead partner); Wageningen University & Research	Enhance farmers' livelihoods by building their capacity in vegetable production and marketing, climate resilience, reduction of post-harvest losses, and business planning and finance, and promote vegetable consumption and healthier dietary habits.	50,000 farmers (25,000 in vegetable production and 25,000 in business planning and finance options)	Kaduna and Kano states
2021-2025	Horticulture Program Nigeria (HortiNigeria)	Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands	International Fertilizer Development Center (lead partner); Wageningen University & Research; KIT Royal Tropical Institute	Facilitate the development of a sustainable and gender- and youth-inclusive horticulture sector that contributes to nutritional security in Nigeria.	60,000 farmers	Kaduna, Kano, Ogun, and Oyo states
2019-2024	Transforming Nigeria's Vegetable Market	SDG Partnership Facility (a grant programme of the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs managed by RVO)	Ministry of Agriculture & Forestry Kaduna State; Ahmadu Bello University; Stichting Wageningen Research (Wageningen University & Research); Solidaridad Network West Africa	Increase the productivity of the domestic vegetable sector by bringing knowledge, new varieties, and adapted technologies from the private sector and evidence-based knowledge and skills from reputable universities.	136,200 farmers	Kano and Kaduna states